

Elvis-Phase: Kindheit und frühe Einflüsse (1935–1953)

Lyrics

Verse 1

A little house beneath the southern sky
A dreamer's heart and a guitar nearby
Sunday voices rising high above
Learning faith, learning hope, learning love

Chorus

Oh, sing it loud, sing it clear
Let the whole world hear
From a dusty road in Tupelo
A brand-new star would grow

Verse 2

Gospel echoes through the summer night
A young boy searching for his guiding light
Blues and country drifting on the wind
A brand-new journey soon would begin

Verse 3

Working days and dreaming after dark
Holding tightly to a tiny spark
No one knew what time would bring
No one knew he'd be the King

Chorus

Oh, sing it loud, sing it clear
Let the whole world hear
From a dusty road in Tupelo
A brand-new star would grow

Outro

From Tupelo to history
One voice would set the people free
